Subject: Escape of prisoners and under-trial prisoners from custody in Jails and Lock-ups.

Sir,

I am directed to enclose herein a copy of Circular No. 3 of 1939-40 dated 15th August 1939 issued by the I.G. of Police in the matter of awarding punishment to the staff responsible for allowing prisoners to escape from Police custody, and to request that in view of the frequent escapes of prisoners ~~and under-trial prisoners~~ from custody in jails and lock-ups, ~~that~~ you will be so good as to issue a similar circular to the officers of your Department ^{and to enforce} ~~to take action~~ ^{the it strictly in all cases} ~~on lines laid down therein~~, against the staff responsible for escapes. The personnel of the staff responsible for escapes should (1) invariably be placed under suspension pending a departmental enquiry and (2) if conclusive evidence is forthcoming that the personnel is responsible for the escape, prosecution should be launched promptly against them and they should be tried in a Court ^{of law} (3)

(3) But if ^{the} evidence ~~is~~ available is not conclusive, the personnel responsible should be dismissed from service. In either case they should not escape punishment for their negligence

INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE CIRCULAR ORDER

No. 3 of 1939 - 40 dated

15th August 1939.

Escape from Police custody.

If any Police Officer negligently or wilfully allows a prisoner to escape, departmental proceedings should invariably be held and the punishment awarded, unless there are unusual extenuating circumstances, should ordinarily be dismissal. Before the final punishment order on the departmental proceedings is passed Superintendents of Police must refer to the Inspector General of Police in such cases for a decision whether a prosecution should be instituted. Prosecution will usually be insisted upon when there is definite evidence of connivance or criminal negligence.

E.G.B. Peel,

Inspector General of Police.
